ROBLOX is very similar to gambling. People who don't know better pay real money for fake game money that has no value. Children can be swindled out of all of their parents' hard earned money without realizing it's gone until mom/dad finds another credit card bill at the end of the month or worse.

In March 2018, ROBLOX introduced "VRChat", a game where players can create their own social VR experiences and attend live events. This game was released as a beta version on Steam Early Access in March 2018. A release on PlayStation 4 is planned for August 28, 2018.

In 2014, ROBLOX created a partnership with the National Football League (NFL) that allowed users to make digital representations of each NFL team and play Madden NFL in-game tournaments. This has created an online community for Madden fans to play against other players across the United States and Canada. On April 30th 2018 ROBLOX released a new version of its app called Ava. Ava serves to help players craft more interesting games from their favorite video games and cartoons. ROBLOX is the only stop-motion animated game where players can make their own characters in a game and then animate them. Ava has features such as a desktop workspace, a top toolbar that allows users to interact with other Ava users, and a snap menu that allows users to snap any two blocks together to create new shapes or new objects.

In August 2017, a former employee posted a blog post detailing the company's "toxic" work culture and poor working conditions. The employee claimed that she was fired after speaking out about these issues and later filed a wrongful termination lawsuit against the company as well as several co-workers associated with her firing. The suit, which for the most part was dismissed, claimed that former CEO David Baszucki played an integral role in her firing as he forced the team to "ignore basic standards of professionalism". It also cited him for saying that "female workers in [his] office and in the tech industry were 'annoying' and should not serve in a high-ranking position."
