In December 2017, Microsoft announced that they were making an acquisition bid for TikTok for $1 billion and was working with Chinese internet giants Baidu and Tencent to develop apps for TikTok's 500 million user base in China.",

In an attempt to avoid its user base getting older faster than the app's overall demographic, TikTok has made changes to its algorithm so that older content will be pushed out further down in the queue. While this will push some content off the front page, it should keep a stream of new content coming through your feed while also encouraging users to explore other features. "To show the right content to the right audience at the right time, we need to make sure that we're considering personalization across all our platforms and experiences," said Deyu Xu, TikTok's chief product officer. "Our work in refining our algorithms—and using machine learning to increase relevancy—is a significant part of how we are doing this.",

In an article published by TechCrunch, it was alleged that "The news of a big funding round from the major investors is somewhat unexpected because Bytedance has not been the most active or profitable company in terms of fundraising thus far. The company did raise a $300 million round and took out two significant loans, but otherwise both of those funding rounds include more traditional Chinese VC firms as well as other global and Japanese investors." This article was published on TechCrunch. In an article published by The Next Web, it was alleged that "In fact, in its last filings with the SEC, Bytedance indicated that the firm had burned through $5.1 million in cash between 2016 and 2017. The losses have increased since then, and the firm has reportedly burned over $14 million in cash in 2018 alone." This article was published on The Next Web. In an article published by Business Insider, it was alleged that "When it comes from China, one of the most promising societies in the world, you know the company is serious about making money." This article was published on Business Insider.",
