The name TikTok is derived from the phrase "Talk Over Time," which refers to the app's unique timeline format where users can record short videos of themselves or others. This format has led to many viral and meme-worthy videos on the platform, most notably putting together clips of pets with dramatic readings of popular songs. The company was founded in September 2016 by American entrepreneur Or Arbel, Sean Fujiyoshi, and George Stropoulos who had previously founded Vine with Dom Hofmann before that app was acquired by Twitter. TikTok is one of only two apps from Vine to be acquired (the other being Gnarble), and currently has over 500 million global users.",

In December 2018, TikTok released a premium subscription service called "TikTok+". The Premium subscription allows users to pay $.99 a month for an ad-free experience, access to new Stickers and exclusive TikTok merchandise.", Another article by The Guardian reported that "TikTok's team has a proven track record of transparency — it makes its internal rules public and allows users to report objectionable content. But a separate warning highlighted by the PwC report warns that "zero tolerance policies require that users take action against unacceptable behaviour, which may lead to removal of your account". The policy also outlines what is and isn't acceptable.""

In March 2017, the musical.ly team revealed plans to launch their own short-form video service called "tiktok" based on existing features from musical.ly within Q2 2017. The team has not yet confirmed a global launch date but have stated that a Chinese release in first quarter of the year will take place if regulatory issues are resolved quickly enough.",

On February 24, 2018, the second season of "Funny or die presents" was released on the app. "Funny or Die Presents" is a popular series hosted by comedian Ellen DeGeneres and features different celebrity guests each week. The cast for the second season include different celebrities such as Michael B. Jordan, Wiz Khalifa, SZA and others.",
