Even though ROBLOX replaced many of its assets with assets from Awaited Studios for being sued by Dr. J for copyright infringement, ROBLOX did not do this to avoid paying royalties for all of the money that was earned by users who were using their assets in other games.

ROBLOX uses cookies, a small piece of data containing a unique identification number that is sent to the user's browser from the web server and stored on the user's computer hard drive. By storing on the hard drive, ROBLOX is able to recall user preferences and settings, such as game scores or user names. ROBLOX uses cookies to monitor how users use the platform as well as how effective its ads are at converting users into paying customers.[3]

This one is a really annoying method to get free robux but what you can do is take advantage of the events. If there is an event, then you should grab your friends and start playing as well. Once you play for a certain amount of time, then you will get a lot of free robux. The more friends that are playing during the event, the more free robux you will be getting.

On October 8, 2017, they released a video showing large amounts of bugs and glitches in the game Frostbite. These include several bugs that allow for players to place guns and kill other players in mere seconds. ROBLOX said on their blog that this was due to an "incorrectly prepared prize package" but later stated that it was an error during a new update of their "Prototype Editor", which was supposed to have fixed the issues, but evidently did not.
