"TikTok is an app that invites people to talk and make friends through conversation, voice record, text chat, and other forms of social media." TikTok was formed with the mission to show how fun conversation can be. The company believes it has a special power in its ability to bring people across different cultures together. Tuaswiti Ketsirisup said, "Each person is a new conversation in itself.",

TikTok has been criticised for allowing profanity in some of its videos, as well as encouraging some of its videos to be posted publicly. This is because casual profanity does not have the same impact or consequence in Chinese culture as it would otherwise have in English or American culture. There are many examples of offensive, inappropriate or dangerous behaviour on TikTok, and some users have found it difficult to identify when this behaviour is acceptable and when it is not. Some of this behaviour could be seen as encouraging users to behave in a similar way if they are in a similar situation.",

In an article published by CNNMoney, it was alleged that "The app's newest version, released in November, allows for more than 1 million brands to pay to have sponsored posts or advertisements on the platform." This article was published on CNNMoney. In an article published by TechCrunch, it was alleged that "TikTok's parent company ByteDance is doubling down on its main competitor as a way to drive revenue rather than cool features." This article was published on TechCrunch. In an article published by The Next Web, it was alleged that "TikTok's parent company ByteDance has been fast-growing ever since it launched Toutiao over a decade ago." This article was published on The Next Web. In an article published by Business Insider, it was alleged that "There are already more than 1 million brands and celebrities on the platform, allowing brands to sponsor posts. TikTok's new version allows for "app views," which is how users navigate the interface." This article was published on Business Insider.",

Looking to get your business verified on TikTok in 2021? Here's everything you need to know about the TikTok verification process. However, it's not easy to get the coveted blue tick checkmark — especially on TikTok. Verification is supposed to be for public figures, celebrities, brands, and...

In February 2021, it was also reported that some TikTok users who had provided their contact details for verification purposes had received a notification stating that their mobile number would be used by ByteDance for promotional purposes starting February 8, 2021. Meanwhile, others were receiving messages stating that their name would not be allowed to appear next to ByteDance's logo. Because of the fact that there appears to be no clear statement on how people are allowed to opt out of these types of promotional schemes, many have had a negative reaction to them. The following is an example screenshot of a comment by someone who was trying to upload a video with their contact details:", TikTok launched a music service in September 2021. It allows users to upload songs and playlists and then share them on the platform. The feature was launched with Sony Music, Universal Music Group, Warner Music Group, Interscope Records, Capitol Records, Vevo (represented by Vevo's parent company Universal Republic) and Songza as part of the launch. They also announced the app would soon add Spotify and Pandora access.",

In April 2021, TikTok began introducing advertisements into its videos. The advertisements contain short videos of celebrities and influencers that users can choose to watch. The ads are categorized as "Scenes" or "Music Moments". Scenic videos are 15- to 30-second clips of real-life events such as a pool party or a bride's wedding day whereas music moments are the same clips but with an audio overlay of a popular song. The ads are between 15 and 30 seconds long and can be skipped after 5 seconds.",

In March 2021, Linius Technologies filed a lawsuit against Musical.ly for trademark infringement. Linius Technologies claimed that the word "musical" in Musical.ly's name was too similar to their trademark, and Musical.ly had to change their name or its domain name. In June 2021, Musical.ly announced that they would no longer use the word "musical" in their name and would instead shorten it to just "Musical". Lytro Cameras also filed a lawsuit against the company in June 2021 for trademark infringement. In August 2021, Linius Technologies filed a request to have Musical.ly removed from the Google Play Store which was denied by Google on November 9, 2021 with Google stating that because musical.ly wasn't using the word "Musical" in their name (previously Musically), it could not be taken down from the app store.",

In the Middle East, TikTok has been partnered with local governments such as Qatar's Department of Culture and Information (QDCI) to allow citizens and tourists alike to enjoy the app. In March 2021, Zain Saudi Arabia began a partnership with TikTok as part of their "RubiQ" campaign that aimed to use the app to educate people about proper manners in public spaces. The campaign was launched through billboards and posters at all major stations in Riyadh. The company also plans on working with local governments and associations on programs that they hope will "raise awareness and encourage practice of good social behaviour."",
