I am not a Minecraft addict, but I do enjoy playing that game. However, that is only because my friends and I play it together. Not because of the millions of dollars or diamonds you can get for free on Roblox. People are obsessed with Roblox; my Facebook account was filled with friends who played Minecraft as if they were addicted to crack. They would constantly post pictures about their new lifesize cardboard builds they worked on at home; taking ages-long breaks between each video to watch more videos of minecraft. We've all had friends who were that addicted to Roblox in our time, but I have never met one like Sinead who was "deeply miserable" because she was deprived of playing it. That was always the case whenever anyone mentioned it, I'm sure; parents would frequently ask me if and how I managed to get my grades, and teachers would always ask me if we had any homework. Sometimes they'd even assign us essays to write about our time on Roblox; even though a few months before everyone stopped doing them unless they were mandatory.

I love Roblox, but there are some things that I don't like. My favorite aspects of Roblox are that it's fun and easy to play with my friends online, and it has funny ways of making you laugh or feeling nervous. My least favorite aspect is that if you use your neighbor's computer (turn it on/jack in) you can't change your username or skin. Also, there are players who break laws such as swear words, so they get banned from Roblox for doing so. I don't think Roblox should be edited at all, but just taken off.

Rated 5 out of 5 by Anonymous from Charming Roblox is so charming, even though I am 11 years old I still love this game. My sister is 8 years old, and she also loves this game. She plays roblox more than me. We always play it together, and we sometimes even make a little brother character named Blox. Every night we would ask our mom if we could play roblox longer, because we didn't want to stop. I love the update where when you or your friends spell a word, something pops up in the middle of the screen to tell you the number of letters in that word. The only thing I think is bad about this game is that you have to have headphones on if you want to move around, and since I usually play with headphones in it makes it harder for every one else to hear what my sister is saying (but they can still hear her). I love this game so much. I would definitely recommend it to my friends.

Games on ROBLOX have many different settings, including combat, customization settings, scenery design, etc. Several games that are featured on ROBLOX have different levels of rules, from the extremely basic "No Rules" or "Give and Take" settings to "No Kill" settings. The more difficult options create a more immersive experience for the players. For example, some games' settings can only be changed by the current owner, while other games have custom-made tools that allow players to modify it at will.[35]
