Although many games on ROBLOX are free, some with "premium" features, others require money for certain features. One example of this is when the players can buy exclusive items that are only available for purchase through Builders Club membership.[53] Before March 2010, premium features were known as paid-for items. As of March 2010, all premium items in a game are referred to as "Builders Club Premium."

The Free Robux application is compatible with almost every device, and can be used to play games on the computer or on your smartphone. This means that users can play games offline when they are not connected to the internet. The 100Robux app is compatible with the devices which launch in 2017, such as iPhone 7, Samsung Galaxy S8 and Google Pixel.

On July 31st 2019, ROBLOX announced they would no longer be supporting this feature, and will be removing all games that are now using this physics system from the ROBLOX Catalog. This will affect nearly every game and millions of gameplay hours into future. The reason why they are discontinuing the feature is because most games with custom physics settings were [[Rage Quitters's favorite targets, and almost all of them are either unplayable or broken due to Roblox's buggy physics engine.
