Farmville: This is yet another example of a game that doesn't really offer any value at all but still manages to make a ton of money. It's a very bizarre concept which involves fun because you think you're going to become rich by buying fake farm products and selling them or you can become popular by posting pictures of your fake farm products and getting attention from people who want similar things. I mean, if this is what people want then it's really no different than Roblox except with Farmville you're dealing with real money.

Game Guidelines: On March 23rd 2021, ROBLOX announced changes to its Terms of Service and Privacy Policy regarding the game guidelines for making games on the website. The company has added new restrictions that force creators to only make certain kinds of games.[80] To be more specific, Roblox has forbidden developers from making violent and offensive content such as school shootings or terrorism. Instead, players can only make games that are appropriate for kids.[81]

The inventory of each user cannot be accessed by anyone else. If you want to find out what a piece of furniture is for, you are going to have to purchase it from your inventory. There is no sharing of items between users; they can only be found in your own private stash.

On September 30, 2021 ROBLOX Studio was released. This app allowed users to develop games using their tablet devices as well as their computer. Builders Club was also released around this time; however it cost 10 ROBUX to join Builders Club until March 2021 when the price was raised from 10 ROBUX to 100 ROBUX per month.

On August 28th, 2021 ROBLOX announced the discontinuation of ROBLOX Custom Physics in favor of Bloxlet. This will eventually be released as an update so that all games made for Classic ROBLOX mode will automatically have the new physics system in place, but there is an unknown future for what will happen to those games when the discontinuation happens.

Some users have also claimed that ROBLOX never responds to or bans reported users. This is because there are many cases where both inappropriate content spreads rapidly through the site, but ROBLOX does nothing about it because they do not want to ban accounts for minor rule violations like swearing, nudity or spamming in chat.

I have always wondered why people enjoyed playing Roblox so much. I think it's because it's very similar to Minecraft in many ways; for one thing, the graphics are very childish which got me interested at first. Because the game is customizable, you can choose to look at the world through a little boy's eyes or that of an adult. I chose to be an adult for a time, but it was always hard to play because it would become so boring. But at some point when I was playing Roblox, my interest in it started to fade away. The reason for this is because of the new updates they made to Roblox. Now there are so many advertisements everywhere and so many games being added every day. You never play with friends because everyone has their own account and their own games they are playing. Even if your friends are on, you have no idea who they are because they could just be anyone.
