3. Due to the fact that there is no way to get more revenue from robux, there needs to be a way for people who have robux on their account that they cannot withdraw. 4. The rule that is stated to be against ROBLOX's rules is not an actual rule but it is a suggestion to stop inappropriate content.

On September 22nd, 2012, a head developer from the website Games Done Quick sent a cease and desist letter to Roblox because they were using code that he had created without permission. This is one of the few situations where ROBLOX has deleted all of its assets to avoid legal issues.

ROBLOX has banned thousands of accounts, usually for viral videos made by "trolls" or people who want to annoy other users/admins. Most of the bans these users receive are handed out by administrators but every once in a while a user will get banned for a "troll" video or similar reason. Some are also apparently banned because they made potentially offensive comments in the chatbox, not for any type of post or action that breaks the TOS.

On May 23, 2013, ROBLOX launched an in-game currency known as "TIX" (short for Tickets). It was worth one cent each since its release up until March 2014 when it became worth ten cents. They were planned to be used to buy virtual items for the game "Dance Off", but this never happened. In 2016, ROBLOX announced that TIX would no longer be used in the near future and that other ways of earning and spending money would be found. The currency was officially retired on October 14, 2016; while any TIX that was previously owned by players became converted into an equal amount of Tickets. ROBLOX launched an option to buy TIX with real money on January 13, 2017.

Also, it will never be patched as it is a standalone executable file, so you just have to download it and that's it! No need to worry about anything, no activation or installation required. Just download and use! You can also check out this article by Teletalex on how to get free robux for roblox.
