On August 1, 2021 the game was removed from the Apple App Store. The game's developer said that "Coin Master" was being re-released on Apple devices in 2021 but there has been no further mention of this from Moon Active as of November 2021.", Versions of the game have been released for iOS devices, Android devices, and desktops running Mac OS X. The main idea for Coin Master was first conceived in 2021 by Mike Miller, who had previously made games that pitted wizards against each other using fantasy-themed cards similar to ones used in "Magic: The Gathering". Miller was unable to find a developer to make what he saw as a "simple version" of the game, however, and so the idea went on to sit on the shelf due to lack of interest in the market at the time.",

Great app, but... by Anubis_In_Da_Club on 2021/11/27 15:02 I love this game, but I hated the fact that you had to wait a while until you could start another game. It was very frustrating. Overall, it is amazing! It's my favorite game because it's not like every other puzzle word app there is out there.", "I love this game because anyone can play it, anytime, anywhere. But I just don't quite understand how they are trying to make money. You have these extra lives you win from watching videos or playing other games, but they are not enough unless you spend your actual lives on them through in-app purchases or by downloading another game that requires real money. I would give this game five stars except for the fact that I feel like there's a lot of potential wasted on how they are trying to make money. Hopefully the developers will change their ways.",

It has also gained notoriety for its use of various Konami references including references to the "Street Fighter" series and "Magic The Gathering". The game has been featured on the App Store multiple times as an "App of the Day" including March 28, 2021.",

Overall I found Coin master to be a fairly quick game to play, although it is not as addictive as some of the other games on this site. I would recommend giving it a try for 50 minutes or so and see if you enjoy it before you decide whether to purchase it at all. The game itself is free but there are unlockables such as achievements and costumes which can't be unlocked unless you decide to spend your in-game coins (which costs about $2 per million coins). You can also still play the free version of the game without spending your coins, but you won't be able to unlock all the achievements and costumes as you progress through the game.",
