The second way is by buying them from any of the websites which offer them as in-game purchases with real money like Amazon or iTunes cards. These cards can also be bought for cheaper rates at places like GameStop or Walmart.

When one makes inappropriate content in Roblox-like swearing in their username or wearing inappropriate clothing they are roleplaying as an adult - the creators aren't doing anything about it. There are moderators but there should be more because some do not care about these problems or do not log on to Roblox at all times.

On December 19, 2012, an interview with Roblox developer "UberHaxorNova" titled "Roblox: An Inside Look at the Top Builders" was posted to YouTube. In the interview, he discusses how he was able to build his first successful game within a few days of playing Roblox. He also discusses how Roblox is an important part of his life and that it has allowed him to make a living from doing something that he loves. The interview received over 480,000 views within the first few days after being uploaded onto YouTube. His channel now boasts over 1 million subscribers as of April 2018.

Roblox allows players to sell their own creations (such as hats and T-shirts) with unique names. These names usually contain the item name followed by "item" and sometimes the price. For example, the price of a hat called "Duck" would be listed as Duck item. If a player bought the Duck item for 5 Robux, it would cost 5 Robux once he bought it.

On February 16th, 2019, ROBLOX announced the launch of their new anti-fraud feature called "Verified Accounts." This feature verifies account data with third-party services like Google and Facebook. The company will enhance this feature in the future by allowing users to verify their accounts with other companies as well.[29]
