Her parents did not approve of this decision and they started a petition on Change.org to get their daughter unbanned back on Roblox. They stated that her ban would be a violation of their privacy rights as well as an infringement upon her civil rights, as a minor. The family requested that Roblox reverse its ban of Arielle and instead give her a warning to stop future harassment, which she committed while playing "Minecraft". The petition received more than 50,000 signatures in less than 12 hours. However, it was then reported by users that the petition had been removed from the website soon after it began. As soon as the petition was received by Roblox, it was announced that her account would be reviewed and further action would be taken in response to how she had "been conducting herself online".

It is also important to understand that when using free robux scripts, it has the potential of causing your activities on different social media outlets to be hacked by other individuals who may be using similar scripts.

In 2018, the company announced that they would be adding new measures in an attempt to stop children from getting weapons and access to violent themes. These measures include making it mandatory for anyone under the age of 13 to provide proof of identity when signing up for a Roblox account. The report also stated that the company has a team of moderators who work with different groups such as parents and educators to monitor games and stop users from being able to access offensive content.

On March 18th, 2019, ROBLOX announced that they were working on a system that would allow them to detect bot accounts and confiscate accounts from them.[31] On April 25th, 2019, ROBLOX announced "Secure Trading" again as they would require players to use their respective Facebook page accounts for trading purposes. As of June 15th, 2019, ROBLOX will still allow customers from around the world to trade with other users without requiring Facebook. [32]
