Roblox claims that she was fired because they found out she was using her workplace computer to dig up personal information about her co-workers and this affected her job performance. However, she claims that the only reason they are saying this is because they found out about her blog post and didn't want the bad publicity. Roblox also provided an email that Chris sent to HR in May of 2017 regarding erratic hours. She says that it was just a single complaint and wasn't fired for it.

Rated 5 out of 5 by Anonymous from I love roblox! This game is awesome! It has a lot of cool things to do, you can get characters, build houses in creative, play games in the arcade. There are a lot of things to do in this game. I think you should download it now!! :)

Afterwards, ROBLOX began taking action on these cases and will be using an automated system to monitor all transactions for suspicious activity. [43] ROBLOX has also been known to restrict the number of items that a player can sell. This is because many people would sell off too much of their collection to gain more currency, which can make it harder for other players to find popular items. [44]

On February 4, 2016, Roblox announced that all "Spam" accounts would have their control access taken away for 24 hours. This was done following a warning sent out on January 20th. [69] Spam accounts created prior to August 10th 2016, will receive a permanent ban on February 5th.

As a result of these allegations, another employee named Kent Duryee filed a lawsuit against Roblox in March 2018. Duryee claims that he was also wrongfully fired by Roblox after attempting to report misconduct at work earlier in 2017 but nothing was ever done about it. The lawsuit, which is currently still ongoing, is asking for $5 million in damages and $1 million in lost wages.
