The company continued to grow after adding more games, more ways to interact with other players, and updates to their backend engine. In 2008, the company launched an official website for users to store their games on the website's database and manage their avatar. In 2009, they also launched a virtual currency system called "Robux". These features allowed them to attract a large amount of players to the website at an early stage.

On April 13, 2016, ROBLOX partnered with Nintendo to release a catalogue of upcoming Nintendo Switch games. On June 18, 2016, ROBLOX partnered with Rockstar Games to release an online game based on Grand Theft Auto V. The game was released on July 2 for both PC/Mac and Android devices. The iOS version of the game was made available in December 2016. In October 2017, ROBLOX also launched their version of PayDay 2 which is now available for iOS devices. 2018 also saw the partnership with Activision to promote the release of Call of Duty: Black Ops 4. In addition, iOS users would be able to play Black Ops 3.

Even though ROBLOX replaced many of its assets with assets from Awaited Studios for being sued by Dr. J for copyright infringement, ROBLOX did not do this to avoid paying royalties for all of the money that was earned by users who were using their assets in other games.

On September 30th, 2018, ROBLOX released a "make your own toy" simulator called "Work at a Pizza Place". It proved very controversial as many users perceived it to be a lazy game and was rushed out without being finished. There were also many players complaining about how they could make money by selling pizza hats and shirts. However, this was only intended for people who would want to work at ROBLOX pizza.
