Users also have access to a vast selection of blocks in which they are able to build with. Some users may download free or paid objects from the Marketplace. Once bought, users are free to add new elements and edit them however they wish without paying anything else. Additionally, users have the option to buy premium blocks from the marketplace and be able to edit them more.

While this may be true for some cases, there are some individuals who make these videos just to deceive users into thinking that they have found a way in which they can get free robux for their accounts. This is usually done by editing the time stamp, making it look like they have gained several thousand dollars' worth of free robux within a short period of time.

Roblox users sometimes experience glitches that can let them bypass the moderation system. For example, if a moderator sends you a message and you reply right after they ban you, it will say that your message could not be delivered because they are moderating (unless you previously muted or blocked the user).

In early 2016, Roblox released an update that removed the "Customize" section from the User Interface. This introduced a new UI, which can be viewed here: Roblox Main Page. The new UI has many features that were previously built into the program such as a Store and a Help area.

The company released "Build a Buddy" in February 2018, which allows users to create customizable figures of themselves. On November 13, 2018 ROBLOX released a new version of its app called Ava (ROBLOX's Mobile Application). See above section for more details.
