On June 26th, 2018, ROBLOX CEO John Hanke made an announcement on Twitter that the company would be removing the ability to create avatars for users within games and requiring new avatars to be created instead. Once this update was implemented however, users were able to create new models based on existing ones and preserve them as a template which they could then upload into games alongside their original avatar. This update was to lower fraud within the site with copyright infringement and promoting copyright infringement by bypassing game mechanics by allowing users to create avatars of other users' games.[21]

Every year since 2011 Roblox has hosted a "Developer's Conference" at the language center of Carnegie Mellon University. In 2013 and 2015, the conference was held in Washington DC. It is usually held between late July and early August. The event includes a keynote from an important person of interest to Roblox developers (i.e., one of the founders).

On May 14th, 2014 ROBLOX released Builder's Club which costs $7.99 a month and required players to have it to use in place of the credits system. They later made improvements to the Builder's Club and decided to offer it for free in 2016. On April 25th, 2016, the ROBLOX website was updated to version 2.0. On September 28th 2016, the ROBLOX website was updated to version 3.0 and it had a new design with new features.

ROBLOX has an official YouTube channel. The channel shows animated shorts for the popular game "Abobo's Big Adventure". The videos are created by the user SamoDaCar as part of a deal with ROBLOX.[44] The videos are often posted by other YouTube channels that show other parts of ROBLOX games, such as "Meet Youtuber" and "ROBLOX Adventures", where SamoDaCar comments on his channel. There's also a show called "ROBLOX Top Model", which is a spin-off about girls who compete to be the next top model. The show is hosted by user and famous ROBLOX player Xmithie. There are 6 seasons in all, with a total of 35 episodes.[45]
