ROBLOX's Twitch page was created on April 4th, 2016. So far, ROBLOX has streamed various games and have gained a moderate amount of followers: on April 26th, 2016 (one month after the page was created), ROBLOX had 6,200 followers.[13] On October 24th, 2017 (exactly one year later), they gained 36,000 followers.[14] Their most viewed stream is "High School Life," which so far has gotten over 2 million views.[15] The same video even got 6.7k upvotes.[16]

ROBLOX is a company characterized by its community-based culture. This is reflected in its games, which are generally hosted on the website (as opposed to the product), and as a result, are built by users for users. The developers at ROBLOX have stated that they are completely open to third party development—the only restriction on what is considered acceptable and permissible is that all products must be compatible with ROBLOX's Terms of Service. Whether ROBLOX soft products will be accepted into the Steam platform is still unconfirmed.

Who would want to play a game like this? Nobody really I would think. It's just like Roblox in that you can buy stuff with fake money, but there is no value in either one of them. The real issue is that the developer(s) of both games are making a ton of money from people who don't care about winning or losing, they just want to have fun.

If you play "Robloxian life" long enough, you'll notice that the costs really add up. For every point someone wins, the game will cost the player between $3-$10 depending on how many points are needed to win a double prize. Although this is not completely true for all games, it does affect most games so players can expect to spend a lot of money just for some points or winning prizes.

The app is really easy to use, you just sign up with your email and then enter your username and password which was created when you registered on Roblox. After that it automatically detects your IP address, and then you can choose which device you would like to receive the advertising on. You can choose from a desktop computer, a laptop or a mobile device. The next thing you do is select the game categories that you would like to play games in such as anime, roleplay, sandbox and more. After making your choices, it will show you ads every 15 minutes and then give you free robux for completing offers. You may also skip an ad if you don't want to watch them when they pop up so frequently.
