The developer of Coin Master has been interviewed in numerous publications such as PCWorld, Pocket Gamer, AppAdvice and IGN. In December 2014 a group of students at the University of Maryland College Park released a video titled Sudden Death to promote Coin Master. The video features an NPC character created by one of the developers, who is forced to play the game against a team of players equipped with iPhones on an Android phone. The video had over 3 million views as of April 2015.",

The online version of "Coin Master" was featured in a post on the website Kotaku in which it was described as a "decent distraction". The iOS version of "Coin Master" received an average score of 3.5 out of 5 (out of 46 ratings) with the users giving it an average rating of 4.3 out of 5.0. The Android version received an average score of 3.6 out of 5 (out of 7 ratings) with users giving it an average rating of 4.2 out of 5.0. The Coin Master series has been met with generally positive reception from users. The iOS version of "Coin Master" has been downloaded over 4000 times and has a rating of 4.1 out of 5.0 on the App store.",

On November 17, 2018, Moon Active released Coin Master: Puss in Boots "(Kasegi 2: Bukimi no Tane)" for Android as a free app (it is not available on iOS). This "Coin Master" title features an updated version of the popular video game "Puss in Boots". The game was released in Japan initially as part of Moon Active's "Coin Masters" series. However, this version of the game was never released outside Japan. This version contains microtransactions which can be removed by paying $4.99 USD via in-app purchases.",

The game was also featured on the front page of the App Store in multiple regions including Canada, United States, United Kingdom and Australia. A spin-off title for iOS devices called "Coin Master: Dig Deep" has been released by United Pixelworkers and is available to play online on any compatible browser or directly through an app designed for iPad, iPhone and iPod Touch. This title was released as a limited time premium version with more in-app purchases which included more levels and content. The PC version of this title has also been released on Steam and is available to download directly from within the Steam application or from its store page which can be found here. This game is similar to "Coins & Curses 2" except that it includes more in-game content.", Great game by Big_Doofy on 2014/12/14 21:02 This is the best game ever. It's very addictive and fun to play. I usually play this while I'm bored and waiting for commercials to end during my tv show or when I'm bored. But, sometimes if there is an add, the add doesn't go away until you watch it even if you swipe it away. But other than that this is a great app!",
