In 2003, a new logo was introduced to represent the company: it consisted of a white capital letter "O" on a black background. The logo underwent several changes under various visual design changes during this period. The "O" was sundered into two smaller, green squares with rounded bottoms that closely resembled the shape of the letter "L", which remained in use until 2010. In 2009, ROBLOX released an entirely new logo based on the previous one: this iteration featured a black capitalized "R" on a white background. It was designed to feature the company's name without any visual association to the original logo. The previous logo is still in use today, albeit with a thicker frame.

Users can't defend themselves since the only way they could do so is by contacting an administrator or lawyer. Administrators can ban users for doing anything they don't like or don't agree with. However, administrators have been known to ban users for no reason at all, usually if the user is a moderator or an insignificant/low-level user.

On December 10th 2016, ROBLOX released another update where players could join groups and wear clothes representing their group on their backpacks. However, yet again it was abused by many users who used the feature for monetary gain. As a result of this, ROBLOX removed the functionality and shut down the "ROBLOX Backpacks" section on their website.
