On December 15th, 2018, ROBLOX announced the end of the open beta for their new trading system. The company removed the ability to trade in-game currency among users and limited users' ability to purchase system currency from outside sources while adding even more security features by requiring cards or other forms of identification before buying virtual currency. The reason for the change was to prevent users from spending too much virtual currency on outside purchases of no value to the user. The system was a success, reducing the rate of fraud.[25]

On November 29, 2018, ROBLOX announced that they are partnering with Spin Master which will have various toys and scripted interactivity come out in 2019. The app will be called Spin Master Stories.[51] On December 11, 2018, ROBLOX announced that it would be partnering with LEGO to put the LEGO minifigures in the game. The toys will be available as virtual items for purchase.[52]

ROBLOX has also come under criticism for not having any sort of Quality Assurance, meaning that there is a high chance that the art in users' games will have issues, such as visual glitches, poor texture quality, and various other issues with the art itself.

On November 1, 2015, Roblox was officially sued for copyright infringement by Joshua Moskowitz, also known as "Dr. J". The lawsuit was filed in Los Angeles Superior Court and details how parts of "The Maze Runner" were used to create a ROBLOX game called "The Maze." The lawsuit alleges that Dr. J is notifying every author use of his game engine to give them the opportunity to either take down their games or have a section added to his website.

On January 31, 2018 ROBLOX introduced Community Plots. These plots were originally planned to be released on June 30, 2016, but were delayed. However, they came out on January 31 as "Floating Skyboxes". These plots are a way for ROBLOX users to make money from their creativity and imagination. You still use Robux for them. On July, 2018 ROBLOX introduced the Free-to-Play Game Pass that allows new players to play online games without having to pay ROBUX.
