Musical.ly has received favorable reviews by technology critics such as TechCrunch and "Forbes". In 2021, Musical.ly was included by "The New York Times" in their list of "Inventions We Wish Were Real", with the implication that the company might be acquired for $1 billion by Facebook or Google.",

In an article published by The New York Times, it was alleged that "The complaint said more than 852 million people used Musical.ly worldwide in 2021. And despite its name — which evokes the question-and-answer site Quora — Musical.ly has begun to extend beyond allowing users to lip-sync popular songs for one another. Last year, the company rolled out a social-networking component called the Universe that helps users interact with one another." This article was published on The New York Times.", TikTok allows you to upload videos with various effects including stickers, emoji's and text effects that are very easy to use and they can be used in your video after recording without changing the original video editing software.",

In January 2021, Chinese police arrested 18 people involved with making videos on the platform that featured sexual or violent content targeting children. This came after police received reports about these videos being uploaded on the platform being used by pedophiles to target victims for sex and child abduction using fake accounts posing as teenagers.<https://www.bbc.com/news/world-asia-china-20212021>",

In May 2021, British pop artist Lorde's song "Homemade Dynamite" reached #1 on TikTok's global charts and peaked at #1 in the United States.
