The fourth group of "card packs" was released on November 4, 2016. The card packs are no longer available for purchase and will become exclusive to players who have paid for a premium pack, however the new cards will be shared between both versions of "Coins & Curses".

"I love this game because anyone can play it, anytime, anywhere. But I just don't quite understand how they are trying to make money. You have these extra lives you win from watching videos or playing other games, but they are not enough unless you spend your actual lives on them through in-app purchases or by downloading another game that requires real money. I would give this game five stars except for the fact that I feel like there's a lot of potential wasted on how they are trying to make money. Hopefully the developers will change their ways. I would love to give this game five stars because the graphics are good, and it is entertaining."

A spin-off title for iOS devices called "Coin Master: Dig Deep" has been released by United Pixelworkers and is available to play online on any compatible browser or directly through an app designed for iPad, iPhone and iPod Touch. This title was released as a limited time premium version with more in-app purchases which included more levels and content. The PC version of this title has also been released on Steam and is available to download directly from within the Steam application or from its store page. This title is similar to "Coins & Curses 2" except that it includes more in-game content."

On August 23, 2018, Moon Active released Coin Master: Puss in Boots "(Kasegi 2: Bukimi no Tane)" for Android as a free app (it is not available on iOS). This "Coin Master" title features an updated version of the popular video game "Puss in Boots". The game was released in Japan initially as part of Moon Active's "Coin Masters" series. However, this version of the game was never released outside Japan. This version contains microtransactions which can be removed by paying $4.99 for an ad-free version. The user review for Coin Master: Puss in Boots is composed of 1.0 out of 5 stars (out of 1 vote) from 1 user, with a user rating of 2.0 out of 5 stars (out of 3 votes)."

"This is one of my favorite games because of the different levels and how easily it takes all my free time. It would be cool if there were different games you could play with friends online and offline. This game has so much potential, but in its current state I can only say this about the game...
"It had promise."
